Back Home On Wintergreen Hill

CLAUDE S. ALLAN

There's a lit-tle shack way back on win-ter-green hill, Where the wild ros-es bloom 'round the 'Neath the sil-v'ry bright moonlight they're wait-ing to-night, At the old shack on win-ter-green door — And it's there all my dear ones are wait-ing for me, They're a-lov-in' me hill — And I wish that right now I was back there some-how Just a-hear-in' the too just the same as be-fore, I'm long-ing for home more and more — call of the old whip-poor-will, Way down by the lit-tle red mill —

CHORUS

I'm sor - ry I left old win-ter-green hill, And all the dear ones at home, Left all the wild-woods and rip - pling rills, I've been a - roll - ing stone, and I'm sor - ry, When I re - turn to old win-ter-green hill They will be wait - ing still Moth - er and Rose, and dad I sup-pose,
And there's my old pal, broth - er Bill, Back home on win-ter-green hill.

It's no use for us to fret and It's no use to make our trou-bles
VAMP TILL READY
wor - ry, dear - ie, Smil - ing is the best thing yet dou - ble, dear - ie, Take the bit - ter with the sweet rall.
Trou-bles al-ways leave us in a hur - ry, hon - ey, Here is some-thing nev-er to for - get
When the clouds roll by the sun is shin - ing, sweet-heart, And our joy was nev-er more com-plete rall.
